

Stoeger's New Grand—Trap Gun!

ACCOKEEK, MD (January 15, 2014) – Stoeger is pleased to announce the introduction of the Grand, a single-barrel target gun designed for shooting trap. A 30-inch barrel features a stepped ventilated rib and fiber-optic front sight for acquiring targets quickly.

The Grand is an extractor gun that lifts the shell from the chamber when the action is opened. The Grand's barrel accommodates choke tubes, offering a variety of choke constrictions. The vent rib accommodates a front sight that incorporates a red fiber optic element for easy viewing and quick target acquisition.

The stock incorporates an adjustable comb for a personalized fit that will match your personal stock requirements for whichever target game you favor. The Grand features an automatic safety that engages when the lever is activated to open the action.
